

Andrew Bartzis interviewed by Lance White, June 21 2013, part 6 of 20

LW: [0:38] Welcome back! This is part six of our Galactic History, with Lance White and Andrew Bartzis. And there's something that you touched on in the last episode that I thought was really important to get some clarity on. You were talking about fear, and how the "dark t-shirts" are basically throwing out... all they can at this point, because they know that this is the time when they need to disrupt things. So, June 21st apparently is a significant date.

AB: [1:11] Correct.

LW: [1:12] Now why is that?

AB: [1:15] We've gone from galactic spring to galactic summer in unity with planetary summer. At that point in time is where we as a species naturally shed our old spiritual armor and create new. Think of a soft-shelled crab. It's shed its old and we're in a soft stage. The 21st represents the day you shed your old energetic skin... and to the 14th of July is where you have the opportunity to create new ones. If you are in fear, you will never create that process, and you will just create the same spiritual armoring boundaries that you had before. We do this- it's just a natural process of being here.

[1:58] And then in December, we get an opportunity to create another one. So, those that are truly doing the hard work... hard work being: self-nurturing, self-love, and self-healing so you can heal others... that puts you in the path of being a fully aware light entity that respects the sovereign free will of yourself and others.

[2:22] The 21st is when they're gonna turn on the fear again, in every level of media, in every level of society. There's going to be little games... to get this group into fear, to get this group into fear, information that they've been holding back, y'know, or stuff that maybe they only showed a little bit in 2012 but that was the teaser information, 2013's about mining everything they created in 2012 to create fear. We are a manifesting, creating species, so our fear means we will create our own destruction, quite literally. We're at this point where there's not enough people in fear now to create destruction, but there's enough people still in fear to keep us from awakening.

LW: [3:02] Right. So, much of this will be on the internet? All the media...

AB: [3:08] It'll start on the 21st from 7:00am to 3:00pm, wherever you are, local time, there's going to be a mass-release of psychic parasites through the internet. And that will cause people to go into polarity- people will get angry, people will go into their addictions, and they will be to spread these parasites. And this parasite is an actual industry of people that use the internet to gather these parasites. These parasites naturally exist on earth, just like bugs or flies that eat the carrion. These parasites clean the spiritual energies that need to be re-processed. There are other parasites that are brought from other worlds, that have been cross-bred with ours, and have been given specific attack functions so they can go after high-energy beings, even though a low-energy being is the broadcast energy for this parasite to get into you.

[3:58] There's different types. There's one that bore in like a screw, others that come up through the feet and ankles to get into the liver system. We have energy meridians all over our body they might just come in through one toe and stick in there, and then just slowly, slowly burrow up, and if you're unaware that they exist, it'll just be leg-crampings, or something simple until finally they get into your energetic system, and they make you eat more carbs, put on weight, cause depression, or cause you to separate in your marriage. They really create havoc. The internet trolls that we've all experienced, they'll be in full force... there are actually people that are hired to attack people. Those people are being paid $85.00 an hour to do it. There's been all sorts of soft disclosure about these organizations, that are hiring people to create fake internet sites, to put out fake information, and alternately to attack anybody that's bringing out a layer of truth they don't like.

LW: [4:54] Mm-hm, absolutely. And that's been going on for quite a long time.

AB: [4:58] Quite a long time.

LW: [4:59] And through all the various governmental agencies and so on, they all have their versions of it.

AB: [5:03] Correct.

LW: [5:04] Um, one of the people that I interviewed recently was Eve Lorgen, and she talks a lot about these parasites and how to deal with them on her website, so this is just something that has come into my awareness recently, and various kinds which she's talking about many more than we...

AB: [5:24] There's thousands.

LW: [5:25] Right! Well, we know there are parasites within our bodies, so, you know...

AB: [5:30] Only naturally, there's energy parasites. For getting rid of them... for everyone out there, salt is the great neutralizer. Salt. Pink Himalayan salt, standard kosher salt, not iodized salt, you need bigger sized crystals- kosher salt is bigger crystals. Sea salt is great. Colored salt... put a zip-lock bag with half a cup of salt, put it on the back of your neck, lay down on a pillow...and just let your energy meridians that are on the back of your neck flow through that salt. The salt will begin to create neutralizing energy that will repel the parasites. It's just like putting salt on a slug- they dissolve. Okay? For those people who are having trouble in dream time, they're having night terrors... put a bag of salt on the back of your neck and on your tailbone, use a little bit of medical tape- it melds to your skin just like an ice-pack. And you will not only take away the parasites but you will allow yourself to have a natural regenerative sleep, so you can once again have the energy and the space to store your dreams.

LW: [6:34] Very good suggestions and I think you also mentioned putting one on your router...

AB: [6:39] On your router, turn your cell phone off at night, turn your router off at night.

LW: [6:45] ...so that there's no transmission.

AB: [6:46] no transmission, these parasites function through the transmission factors of all our different devices.

LW: [6:52] So, basically if you shut everything down for the most part and minimize your...

AB: [7:00] You can still function... when you're asleep, turn them off. For those people that can't turn your cell phone off, don't sleep with your cell phone next to your bed. It interacts with your dream-time. They lure you into the sacred dream-time local city so you never dream in a global dream-time.

LW: [7:15] Right.

AB: [7:17] You're in the fake world. George (Kavassilas) talks about how much they've hijacked us. It goes even deeper than what he says. He could only point out what he's experienced, and I can only point out what I experience. But when people like us come together through talks like this, we get more and more of the picture. Without people like them stepping forward with the brass set to doubt there, we wouldn't be in a scenario where we all can talk like this.

LW: [7:45] Right, the door's been opened wide.

AB: [7:48] That's right, somebody kicked it open and the lock's broken on it.

LW: [7:53] And it also empowers other people to stand up in their own power and speak their own truth.

AB: [7:56] That's right.

LW: [7:59] To even see it and experience it, which is gonna be something new for a lot of people.

AB: [8:04] Mm-hm. And just to clear something up- there's so many perspectives to look at this from. My perspective is the sacred neutral. This is information to me- there's no polarity in it. I don't have dogmas or political concepts or things that I'm promoting, other than our full transparent history with no secrets.

LW: [8:26] Mm-hm! It's about time.

AB: [8:29] It's about time.

LW: [8:33] So, what are, the period of time that this is going to be most likely to occur is, all the way through July?

AB: [8:41] From the 21st of June to the 14th of July is you re-armoring phase. This is where people should turn off their cell phones, turn off their tv, begin to meditate, do whatever it takes for you to do, to empower yourself.

LW: [8:56] Okay. Now, one of the other things that we were talking about in the last session was about Agartha and the third fall of Atlantis. Did you want to add anything more to that?

AB: [9:10] Yeah. Where we left off there- I know we go back and forth a little bit... but, to get this story, there's so much you have to understand about now... because if I just explain then, it doesn't interlink to now. And when we understand everything in-between there... there are people that are leapfrogging through time, making sure that there's a monetary system and a system of domination and control that's in unity consciousness with dis-unity consciousness of creation. So, the hollow Earth and the Agartha network is to make sure that there's unity consciousness spreading amongst our people, that in dreamtime that they can communicate with people (to) be dreamtime protectors.

[9:50] Also we have to understand, this Agartha network, also is off-world species. Off-world species are our soul family. Plain and simple, they are our soul family. Some are good, some are bad, some are neutral...some are really funny species. Some are all musicians. We have to come to the understanding that we are the reflection of them, they are the reflection of us... we're all soul family. The Agarthan network is the ambassadorial spot where these species can come, in unity consciousness, so that we can all see these reflections of ourselves. For we can hold galactic councils in a peaceful state and resolve issues, resolve karma. Many of us are gonna be asked to be emissaries or ambassadors.

[10:41] But take out the human definition of emissary and ambassador. Take out that matrix. And understand those people that go forth are the first layer of the graduating student that say “this is what I’ve learned... this is my life story”. And everyone that comes out saying, “this is my life story... this is what I’ve learned in this galactic ascension machine”. And the hollow Earth will be the ones that hold that information for all seven future generations that will come in after the system of domination and control is done. They’re the ones who are gonna have to oversee the backlog of immigrants that couldn’t get in, or all those people that are stuck in the astral world, who are told “no you can’t get in”.

LW: [11:24] Wow. So... for some of us, the period of time that leads up to the event will be fairly quick.

AB: [11:35] Correct. The awake people will experience it much faster than the asleep (people).

LW: [11:39] And so, what you’re talking about now, the backlog and the rest of it would be...

AB: [11:44] After the event. After the second part. There’s four phases of the event- it’ll be after the second part of the event.

LW: [11:49] Okay, so can you go over those four phases again?

AB: [11:52] First phase is... shared dreamtimes. Second phase is the adults in us begin to experience déjà vu on a mass scale, as well as dreams. Third phase is where we begin to begin separating realities... where the lower density people will dream themselves into a local reality, and the higher density people will dream themselves into a higher-density reality, so that they can begin to be more in touch with their manifesting/co-creating powers. This will be done through dreamtime. You may have a friend that disappears for a week and comes back a whole different person. On a mass scale... sort of. But it only takes a few to change the world. And at the same time it takes many to enforce the change to make it complete. We can have change, but we won’t have complete change until everyone experiences it.

LW: [12:49] So it pretty much is ... all of us working together.

AB: [12:54] All of us working together, and the coming to removing of soul contracts with the system of domination and control... that’s really what the third and fourth phase are, is where we're claiming our sovereign free will on a level where we're out marching in the same scale and size as the 1960s and 70s.

LW: [13:12] Yeah, it seems like there's been such a large complacency, and that we've been just so dumbed-down with artificial intelligence and technological controls, we've just been unable to even turn around without... (or) make a move... so there's bound to be a lot of changes that occur from now on, really?

AB: [13:37] Hmm... yes... in my current inter-function with the akashic record, I've already seen the end, and there's a part of me already there. I couldn't do this without that. And honestly, it was a little disturbing at first... but it was also the spark of hope that I needed to complete this task, knowing that everyone that's followed the galactic historian before me, didn't survive, because when you stop secrets, people get angry.

LW: [14:06] So how does it end?

AB: [14:10] ... It's a Three Stooges show. I can't violate the sovereign free will of individuals... let alone a whole species.

LW: [14:19] But it will be obvious.

AB: [14:22] Blatantly obvious. It's like the scene where the dress flies up and you see the underpants.

LW: [14:26] Yeah...great!

AB: [14:28] ...or she's going "European". (both laugh)

LW: [14:31] Well it'll be a lot of fun for some people who have been sitting in the theater waiting for the show to begin.

AB: [14:37] Mm-hm, that's right... well, again, we don't need cheerleaders. We don't need people sitting and watching in the theater. We need people out there motivating people to claim their sovereign free will.

LW: [14:47] Right, and taking the steps and taking the actions and clearing yourself and healing.

AB: [14:52] Another thing about the Hollow Earth system... They're the ones that are going to because they're soul family and we'll instantly recognize them when they're allowed to be on the surface world on the graduating timeline... They're the ones that are going to take over our court system. Our court system is absolutely corrupt from the top down. It's mean to cannibalize its own people and put them into corporate slavery or physical slavery. The court system will be something that immediately has to be addressed because there's, what, 22 million people in our jail system here? Worldwide I think 6% or 9% of our population of the whole world is in a jail system...

LW: [15:30] At least

AB: [15:31] And then you have the sex slave industry... which is a giant industry... and it's an industry, and there are slaves. They will have to be taken care of by the new court system. And these will be called spiritual courts of equity... Where your ancestors manifest in a full presence and allow what's been done to you to be read into fullness of the akashic record so you can fully get the healing that's needed by getting your sovereign free will. The sex slave industry has been created exactly to take the power away from the sacred feminine. And that has to be addressed immediately.

[16:10] The event (it's "the event")... the event really is about healing too. You know, our women and our men are doing things that are opposite of their nature, because they've been lured that way, and they don't have the real information of what they're supposed to do, what they're supposed to be... You know, those women that are out there that are having difficulty with their menstrual cycles- you can use meditation to connect to the energy and get deeper into an understanding of it. Those men that are highly sexually charged- it's time for you to understand that you can do your own vision quests. You just have to have the gratitude and understanding of what it takes to go through with it.

LW: [16:51] Hm... now, it seems that, concurrent with those things, we'll also have to be a complete revamp of the "financial system".

AB: [17:01] Mm-hm. The banking industry is the chief violator of our free will. The chief violator. Only (in) this world, are you charged to live in it. Okay? And I believe Alex Collier is the one who coined that phrase. You gotta give him his credit for that, because it's a great saying. But on top of that, they tax you every lifetime, so you're never at full power. Okay? The banking industry is controlled by family crests, by manor rolls, by laws that are physically written to affect you on a spiritual level. Okay? The banking industry... the exchange-for-value system will have to be rediscovered the way the rest of the worlds in the universe work. The planetary sentience... Earth Mother... is the overseer of all exchange-for-values, every single thing. And the Earth sentience will be a part of physical technology that guarantees a transaction is transparent and there is no foul play behind it. Scam artists are done. Telemarketers... done.

LW: [18:13] Hm! Good! It'll be a relief to see all that advertising that's popping up everywhere... I mean it's getting so invasive that it practically pops off the screen...

AB: [18:24] On purpose!

LW: [18:25] Yeah! It seems like it can't get any worse, and then they come up with a new technique for harvesting... y'know, trying to harvest our money, and our energy...

AB: [18:38] Mm-hm. The banking system that we have today... when Atlantis was going through its final fall, they had a kind of a hybrid system of exchange-for-value. They traded technology for spiritual information. In World War 2, World War 1, and the Cold War was about creating the technology and then selling it to your friends, for an even higher price, to put them all into debt. the same thing was applied to the Atlantean levels. They traded their technology or their spiritual technology for resources, or technology for technology, maybe it's spiritual technology... they knew they were losing... they knew that they had to plan, way ahead of time, and then they needed people to be a part of the resistance of free Earth- which is all of us, and to be "a cell of one". So, you weren't a pod, you were a cell of one. So all of us individuals are a cell of one of the "Resistance of Free Earth". Everyone here at this time. All of those people that haven't gotten to graduate... we're all "Resistance of Free Earth". Every single one of us.

LW: [19:49] Hm. So how can we take an active role in that?

AB: [19:59] There are so many books out there, that begin the process... I can't even begin to name them all... I don't think it's appropriate to identify a single one in this... but, they're out there. You know, let your heart do that determination. There's so many positive teachers out there now, where they were never allowed to speak before. Go to a bookstore! Allow your heart to help you make the choice. Okay?

LW: [20:25] Right, gravitate toward the one... or let one fall off the shelf!

AB: [20:26] Gravitate! Pick up some crystals... go do an energy healing class... do something that gives you information that you can use as a hobby that you do for fun and for free. When we don't come from a "for fun and for free" state, its a task, and we don't pull our full consciousness into it.

LW: [20:49] Right, right... now, you were talking, too, about some of the, we skipped around the time wars... how extensive are they today? and what's going on with all these conflicts around the world, is this just the ramping up of...

AB: [21:07] The conflicts around the world- all of the conflicts in the Arab world are about preventing seven womb chakras from opening up. They have violence and war on them, for an extended period of time, with the major exchange-for-value systems depositing taxed soul energy into those sacred geometry buildings, and ancient technologies that have been there since the Atlantean fortification days. So, those womb chakras are the ones that are gonna open first. They've always known that. Therefore, those are the places that have to have war on the surface, to prevent the Earth's unity consciousness reaching out through all of the chakras. So it's like putting a cork in it.

LW: [21:49] Ah... are there also battles for stargates?

AB: [21:52] Absolutely. There's a massive attempt to smuggle DNA off this world, as well as living humans off this world... so any opportunity they find random rifts or they find specialized rifts left over from technology that no one's known about for 52 million years, they will use it to their advantage... because they get repaid every time they can get the proper DNA off. As for time wars... we are on a unified timeline since June of 2011, but we; here, right now: live all of our past, present, and future lives simultaneously, so when you begin to understand that layer, combined with the time wars layer, we can end all the time wars in unity consciousness/global dreamtime, where we can heal ourselves as a global society.

[22:43] The off-world wars are a little different. In 2006 we could have been done with this. The Sirian-Grey and Orion wars, when they finally ended, the forces were so depleted, they didn't have the physical "oomph" to come here and kick them out and tear the power "out of their cold dead hands". But at the same time, they discovered a massive layer of corruption within their own light societies, and this corruption was using the DNA smuggling trade to save other races. There are many races out there that are on the verge of death, and on the verge of death because they used cloning technology for 80,000 years. They don't have sex organs, they don't know how to have children... they just do everything test-tube and expect the soul family to come in. So many of their soul family are stuck here that they're not inviting them, because their soul family rules are so specific.

[22:38] So these societies are desperate. They're down to a few thousand of their species left... so they will use this underground smuggling network, which is the multidimensional beings, to get humans, kidnapped, off this world, so they can harvest the DNA from them, and the soul codes from them, so they can save their species. Do I blame them? No. They are trying to save their species. But at the same time, its so... one person can cause a pan-galactic viral outbreak. It's happened many times... But when you reach the desperation of "the last of the species"... you know, I can't blame them, I really can't. But we have to even stop that.

[24:26] When it was discovered how deep the corruption went... um, there was a Sirian Grey that I did a healing for in a galactic psychic surgery chamber, just to simply call it that... I was asked to come in as one of the first communications I had as an adult in the Galactic Historian concept... out of nowhere, they said, "I need your help. You are the only one that has the complete soul codes to this person," and he turned states evidence against many, many, many, many of the light beings. I mean, straight up, turned states evidence, and he needed what I had in me, because he was poisoned with a very special genetic poison, that would not only eliminate him, but all of his future offspring from ever immigrating from other universes. He was also heavily invested in the time wars, so if he passes on in-between a time war, everything that he's done before is unraveled. So, everyone's interlinked. So when you take a piece out, everything falls apart. And I came into this healing chamber, did the healing on him, and he went off to do the rest of his testimony, which is why in 2006... we didn't get our event.

LW: [25:48] Oh! Wow!

AB: [25:50] Well, we had to fix "out there" because if we would have been freed, and there would have been corruption out there, they would have won.

LW: [25:57] Ahh.

AB: [25:59] It's insidious how deep this goes. Absolutely insidious.

LW: [26:04] What else can you tell us about the depth of it?

AB: [26:09] The Sirian Grey wars? or the Orion wars? Which one? ...Massive ship battles...

LW: [26:16] Well maybe what we'll do is when we come back from our break, we can pick up with one or both- the Orion Wars and the Sirian wars. And I also had a question about the Grey breeding programs. Um, you did mention the Greys and they have quite extensive breeding programs with humans, still going on...

AB: [26:39] Yes.

LW: [26:40] In fact many of them are walking the...

AB: [26:42] Walking amongst us

LW: [26:44] ...amongst us, right. So I wanted to find out about that too, so...

AB: [26:47] Okay.

LW: [26:48] So stay tuned! We shall return.

[26:53]
